Asheville Area Habitat for Humanity is an Equal Housing Opportunity Provider. We are pledged to the letter and spirit of U.S. Policy for the achievement of equal housing opportunity throughout the nation. We encourage and support an affirmative advertising and marketing program in which there are no barriers to obtaining housing because of race, color, religion, sex, handicap, familial status, or national origin.

Asheville Area Habitat for Humanity is a Christian non-profit organization whose purpose is to work in partnership with those in need of affordable homeownership to provide simple, decent affordable housing with a monthly payment, guaranteed not to exceed 30% of the buyers gross monthly income.

ASHEVILLE AREA HABITAT FOR HUMANITY PRIVACY STATEMENT and NOTICE

At Asheville Area Habitat for Humanity, we are committed to keeping your information private. We recognize the importance applicants, future homeowners, tenants, and homeowners place on the privacy and confidentiality of their information. While new technologies allow us to more efficiently serve our customers, we are committed to maintaining privacy standards that are synonymous with our established and trusted name.

When collecting, storing, and retrieving applicant, future homeowner, tenant, or homeowner data – such as tax returns, pay stubs, credit reports, employment verifications, and payment history – internal controls are maintained throughout the process to ensure security and confidentiality. We collect non-public personal information about you from the following sources:

Information we receive from you on applications or other forms, such as your name, address, social security number, assets, debts, income, etc.; information about your transactions with us, our affiliates, or others, such as your loan balance, payment history, monthly payment, etc.; and information we receive from a consumer reporting agency, such as your creditworthiness, and credit history.

Asheville Area Habitat for Humanity employees and volunteers are subject to a written policy regarding confidentiality, and access to applicant data is restricted to staff and volunteers on an as-needed basis. Information is used for lawful business purposes and is never shared with third parties without your consent, except as permitted by law.

Habitat for Humanity has no affiliates or contracted marketing experts with whom we share personal information.

As permitted by law, we may disclose nonpublic personal information about you to the following types of third parties:

Financial service providers, such as mortgage servicing agents; Nonprofit organizations or governments; and Credit counseling agencies .

If any applicant feels that a conflict has occurred that needs attention or resolution from the staff at Asheville Area Habitat for Humanity, they should file a grievance with the Homeowner Programs Director. The grievance must be made in writing or in person with the Homeowner Programs Director who can be contacted at 828-210-9370.

EQUAL CREDIT OPPORTUNITY ACT NOTICE

The Federal Equal Credit Opportunity Act prohibits creditors from discriminating against credit applicants on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, marital status or age (provided the applicant has the capacity to enter into a binding contract); because all or part of the applicant's income derives from any public assistance program; or because the applicant has in good faith exercised any right under the Consumer Credit Protection Act. The federal agency that monitors compliance with this law concerning this company is the Federal Trade Commission, with offices at

Southeast Region
Federal Trade Commission
Suite 1500
225 Peachtree Street, NE
Atlanta GA 30303

or Federal Trade Commission, Equal Credit Opportunity, Washington, DC 20580.

You need not disclose income from alimony, child support or separate maintenance payment if you choose not to do so. However, because we operate a Special Purpose Credit Program, we may request and require, in order to determine an applicant's eligibility for the program and the affordable mortgage amount, information regarding the applicant's marital status; alimony, child support and separate maintenance income; and the spouse's financial resources.

Accordingly, if you receive income from these sources and do not provide this information with your application, your application will be considered incomplete, and we will be unable to invite you to participate in the Habitat program.

EQUAL CREDIT OPPORTUNITY ACT (ECOA)

Notice The attached ECOA notice should be provided to all applicants with the application for the Habitat homeownership program in order to communicate the right to require certain income information from applicants for the Habitat program.

Purpose and background: Because Habitat for Humanity homeownership and loan programs qualify as Special Purpose Credit Programs under the Equal Credit Opportunity Act, Habitat can request and consider certain information about income that other lenders may not be allowed to request and consider in connection with their loan programs without providing certain disclosures and options for the applicant to decline to provide that information. Although federal law allows Special Purpose Credit Programs to request and consider this information to determine eligibility for their programs, the law does not explicitly provide an exemption from the disclosure.

Applicant Voluntary Information

INFORMATION FOR GOVERNMENT MONITORING PURPOSES

The following information is requested by the Federal Government for certain types of loans related to a dwelling in order to monitor the lender's compliance with equal credit opportunity, fair housing, and home mortgage disclosure laws. You are not required to furnish this information, but are encouraged to do so. The law provides that a lender may not discriminate either on the basis of this information or on whether you choose to furnish it. If you furnish the information, please provide both ethnicity and race. For race, you may check more than one designation. If you do not furnish ethnicity, race, or sex, under Federal regulations, this lender is required to note the information on the basis of visual observation and surname if you have made this application in person. If you do not wish to furnish the information, please check the option below. (Lender must review the above material to assure that the disclosures satisfy all requirements to which the lender is subject under applicable state law for the particular type of loan applied for).

Fair Lending Notice DISCLOSURE

The Housing Financial Discrimination Act of 1977

It is illegal to discriminate in the provisions of or the availability of financial assistance because of the consideration of: Trends, characteristics, or conditions in the neighborhood or geographic area surrounding a housing accommodation, unless the financial institution can demonstrate in the particular case that such consideration is required to avoid an unsafe and unsound business practice: or Race, color, religion, sex, marital status, national origin, or ancestry.

It is illegal to consider the racial, ethnic, religious or national origin composition of a neighborhood or geographic area surrounding a housing accommodation or whether or not such composition is undergoing change, or is expected to undergo change, in appraising a housing accommodation or in determining whether or not, or under what terms and conditions, to provide financial assistance.

These provisions govern financial assistance for the purpose of the purchase, construction, rehabilitation or refinancing of one-to-four unit family residences occupied by the owner and for the purpose of the home improvement of any one-to-four family residence.

Homeownership Program Code of Ethics and Conduct

AAHH homebuyers are integral in helping to maintain a safe and welcoming work environment free of distractions, harassment, and discrimination. Participants will conduct themselves in a manner that models for others a spirit of kindness and service to our community and which demonstrates an understanding that guests and other clients will take their first impression of Habitat from the participants' attitude and demeanor.

AAHH will not tolerate any of the following:

- Theft
- Unsafe behaviors or work practices
- Verbal abuse, insults and/or demeaning remarks;
- Inappropriate jokes;
- Uninvited or inappropriate physical contact;
- The display of offensive objects, pictures or gestures;
- Flirtation or discussions of a sexual nature;
- Profanity, vulgarity or inappropriate commentary;
- Inactive participation while such behavior is occurring.

Participants may be coached, reassigned, or referred for de-selection for actions that place themselves, volunteers, staff, other homebuyers, or the affiliate as a whole in danger, including but not limited to those listed above.

Harassment and Discrimination

Asheville Habitat prohibits discrimination on the basis of race, color, creed, religion, gender, ancestry, national origin, age, disability, sexual orientation, marital status, status with regard to public assistance, pregnancy, childbirth, familial status, and all other legally protected status.

AAHH prohibits sexual harassment that creates a hostile work environment, and sexual harassment that may be construed as a condition of employment, financial contributions, access to Habitat's services, or a condition of the home-buying process.

Participants who witness or feel they have been the victim of sexual harassment or discrimination should immediately seek a Habitat staff member for assistance and to report the matter to the appropriate supervisor. If comfortable, participants are encouraged to let the harasser know that their behavior is unwelcome. If participants are not comfortable reporting the behavior to a supervisor or director, they may contact: Andy Barnett, Executive Director, via email at abarnett@ashevillehabitat.org.

Asheville Habitat will follow an established Procedure of Claim to investigate all claims of harassment or discrimination in a timely, thorough, and transparent fashion. Asheville Habitat may seek Legal advice at any point after a complaint is made. Asheville Habitat will treat all aspects of the procedure confidentially to the extent reasonably possible. Participants may be coached, reassigned, or referred for de-selection pending the outcome of the investigation of the claim and the severity, frequency and pervasiveness of the conduct. Details of the Procedure of Claim will be shared with the claimant and respondent before an investigation begins and can be obtained by request to a supervisor at any time.
